UNESCO COURIER Index 1995

JANUARY. THE SUN. Interview with Montserrat Caballé. Our middle-aged neighbouring star (P. Lantos). Myths with the sun in them (P. Borgeaud). A light that shines through time and cultures (M. Singh). Zoroastrianism and the cult of fire (M. Tadjadod). Manolo plugs into the sun (C. Flavin & N. Lenssen). India's self-help solar villages (Sanjit Bunker Roy). The World Solar Summit (interview with B. Berkovsky). The new Alexandria library. Fact file. Building a culture of peace (F. Mayor). Heritage: The Pantheon (C. Duvelle & M. Rosi). Greenwatch: The food/population equation (L. Brown). Listening: Mambo mania (I. Leymarie). Global view: The UNESCO Prize for the Promotion of the Arts. Archives: Men of little faith (J. Bojer). Anniversary: Louis Pasteur (L. L. Lambrichs).

FEBRUARY. THE MULTIMEDIA EXPLOSION. Interview with Régis Debray. 'New ways of being together' (D. Bougnoux). Unequal voices (A. Mattelart). The media: a modern scapegoat? (E. Valverde). Interactivity—a matter of give and take (M. Sénécal). The Internet: journey into cyberspace (D. Pélissier). From global village to global mind (D. de Kerckhove). The shoals of freedom (M. Frybes). Monopolies, minarets and videos (S. Hammami). UNESCO's strategy (interview with H. Yushkiavitshus). From the Cold War to the era of new technologies (A. Modoux). Fact file. Reinventing the press (F. Mayor). Heritage: The great temple of Thanjavur (A. Murugaiyan). Greenwatch: Clean driving: a green dream? (F. Bequette). Anniversary: Fuzuli, poet of divine love. Archives: Intuition, intelligence and the making of modern man (S. de Madariaga). Listening: The heartbeat of jazz (I. Leymarie). 1995: United Nations Year for Tolerance (Lieh-tzu).

MARCH. DEVELOPMENT: THE HAVES AND THE HAVE-NOTS. Democracy, the common heritage of humanity (Aung San Suu Kyi). Dismantling the mechanism of exclusion (I. Sachs). The culture of silence (A. Traoré). Empowerment, an escape route from poverty (J. Friedmann & L. Sandercock). The rag-pickers of Pune. South Africa: leaving apartheid behind (R. Meunier). Change from within (P. Anyang Nyong'o). PRONASOL: Mexico's war on poverty (J. Marques-Pereira). An ethical commitment (D. Jain). Brazil: a country in arms against hunger (H. de Souza). Hoping against hope (E. Morin). Fact file. Sharing our knowledge (F. Mayor). Heritage: The stones of Byblos (S. A. Jalu). Greenwatch: Montseny, harmony in the hills (F. Bequette). Anniversary: José Martí (C. Vitier). Global view: Population growth and development (interview with J.-C. Chasteland). Archives: Sensationalism and the popular press (B. S. Cano). 1995: United Nations Year for Tolerance: Violence, an affront to humanity (F. Mayor). Listening: Opera from Taiwan (I. Leymarie).

APRIL. THE ORIGINS OF WRITING. Interview with Ernest J. Gaines. The written word (X. Perret). Mesopotamia: The birth of writing (B. André-Salvini). China: From pictograms to pinyin (R. Tang-Loaec & P. Colombel). Central America: Colour-coded languages (J. Galarza). Islam: The calligrapher's art (H. Massoudy). Africa: An inspired invention (D. Dalby). Japan: A four-in-hand script (Shiro Noda). The Western world: The power of the pen (H. J. Martin). Fact file. A colossus with feet of clay (F. Mayor). Heritage: Quito (J. E. Adoum). Greenwatch: Environment-friendly Oman (F. Bequette). Anniversary: Sâ'eb of Tabriz (H. Esmaili). Global view: An international debate on literature today and tomorrow (A. Blokh & A. Meddeb). Archives: The press and the public (P. Scott Mowrer). Listening: I. Leymarie talks to D. Patnayik. Books: A man and his time. 1995: United Nations Year for Tolerance: An uphill task (T. Ben Jelloun).

MAY. THE PILGRIM'S WAY. Interview with The Abbé Pierre. A mysterious journey (F.-B. Huyghe). The thrice-holy city (A. Laurent). Pathways to enlightenment (M. Pye). The road to Compostela (M. Bravo Lozano). Chinese Buddhist pilgrims in India (P. Magnin). Pilgrimages in Judaism (N. de Lange). Where the rivers meet (R. Bharucha). The heart's infinity (A. Meddeb). Unfettered freedom (F. Mayor). Heritage: The mystery of Persepolis (C.-E. Doxuan). Greenwatch: Mining, a clean bill of health? (F. Bequette). Archives: The Latin American intellect (A. Reyes). Listening: The eye and the ear (I. Leymarie).

JUNE. AIDS, A WORLDWIDE EMERGENCY. Interview with Nicolae Breban. Editorial (F. Mayor). From HIV to Aids (R. Weiss). The state of research (L. Montagnier). What can be done? (M. Merson). The Maghreb: women in the front line (H. Himmich & L. Imane). Zimbabwe: the social roots of Aids (M. Bassett). India: no time to lose (I.S. Gilada). Europe: the political dilemma (R. Süssmuth). New therapeutic approaches (J.-M. Andrieu). Health and human rights (J. Mann). The search for a vaccine (M. Girard). Aids in a different light (M.-T. Bocabeille). Fact file. Heritage: Susah (M. Ghachem). Greenwatch: Turkey (F. Bequette). Listening: cultural counterpoint(I. Leymarie).

JULY-AUGUST. A CENTURY OF CINEMA. Interviews with Milos Forman, Jean-Paul Rappeneau, Suresh Jindal, Mani Kaul, Abbas Kiarostami, Tomás Gutiérrez Alea, Nagisa Oshima, Marcello Mastroianni, Milco Mancevski, Volker Schlöndorff. An art and an industry (P. Schepelern). A birthday or a funeral? (K. Zanussi). Hollywood (T. Balio). Perchance to dream... (L. Steketee). Methuselah or Peter Pan? (J.-C. Carrière). Windows of opportunity (J. Palmer). The first Indian studios (R. Maitra). A silver-screen symphony (E. Faure). Egypt through the looking-glass (M. Wassef). Mexican melodrama: the remake (J. C. Avellar). Cinecittà (F. Bono). The African cinema in crisis (G. Kaboré). The Babelsberg Studios. Yesterday's images for tomorrow's eyes (T. Wagner). Appeal by the Director-General of UNESCO: Saving the cinematic heritage (F. Mayor). Anniversary: Abai Kunanbayev, 1845-1904 (interview with C. Aitmatov).

SEPTEMBER. WOMEN: ONE HALF OF HEAVEN. Interview with Nelson Freire. A time for partnership (R. Eisler). The North: a disturbing independence (interview with B. Friedan). The South: a joint struggle (interview with A. Traoré). Pride without prejudice (A. Jung). A bank that only lends to the poor (interview with M. Yunus). Three women from Pakistan (A. Inayatullah). Going it alone (C. Catarino & L. Oso). Africa's invisible women (P. Made). The Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo (A. D. Ortiz). Rigoberta Menchú, witness to an age. Somalia: the great escape (H. Keynan). Norwegian politics bridges the gender gap (H. Skjeie). Lithuania: the first statute for women (U. Karvelis). Men supporting women (M. S. Kimmel). Are men and women on the same wavelength? (C. Vidal). The road to Beijing (interview with I. Breines). Fact file. Women Nobel Laureates. Listening to Africa (F. Mayor). 1995: United Nations Year for Tolerance: A triptych by Sofía Gandarias (S. Naïr). Heritage: Baroque Zacatecas (F. Segovia). Greenwatch: Drylands and deserts (F. Bequette).

OCTOBER. THE UNITED NATIONS. Grounds for hope (B. Boutros-Ghali). Fifty years on (F. Mayor). Key dates. Major conflicts. The balance sheet: The road to peace (M. Bertrand). The development debate (C. Comeliau). The struggle for human rights (P. Alston). Peace-keeping operations. Organization chart of the UN system. Principal organs. Programmes and organizations. Specialized agencies. Specialized agency chiefs look ahead. Greenwatch: Gender and environment (F. Bequette).

NOVEMBER. PEACE, A NEW BEGINNING. Interview with Yehudi Menuhin. A new beginning (F. Mayor). Our common home (E. Morin). The road to 1945 (C. Bekri). UNESCO's programme for peace (A. S. Sayyad). Demilitarizing military service (A. Baer). Peacemakers honoured by UNESCO: Nelson Mandela (T. Ben Jelloun), Frederik Willem de Klerk (A. Johnson), The Hague Academy of International Law, Shimon Peres (C. Enderlin), Yitzhak Rabin (L. Beyer de Ryke), Yasser Arafat (L. El-Kholy), Jimmy Carter (F. Lewis), Juan Carlos I (R. L. Acuña). Greenwatch: Fish farming, a 4,000-year-old growth industry (F. Bequette). Heritage: The Iguaçu Falls (E. Bailby). Listening: The birth of the blues (I. Leymarie). 1995: United Nations Year for Tolerance: The watchful eye of democracy (R. Hoggart).

DECEMBER. TROGLODYTES. Interview with Jean Daniel. Life below ground (J. Rewerski). China: when loess means more (J. P. Loubes). Italy: rocks in a hard place (P. Laureano). Ethiopia's new Jerusalem (K. Begashaw). Troglodytic sites on the World Heritage List. Science that must be shared (F. Mayor). Heritage: Luxembourg (J.-P. Kraemer). Greenwatch: Protecting plant life (F. Bequette).